PHONAK

Audéo EON R and CROS EON R

Clarity you hear.
Connection you feel.

EON

Clarity you hear.
Connection you feel.

Phonak Audéo™ EON R hearing aids are designed to help you hear what matters. Powered by Phonak AI, EON automatically adapts to changing sound environments to help deliver a more natural listening experience and keep you connected to the people and moments in your life.

For people with single-sided deafness, CROS EON R pairs with Phonak Audéo EON and transmits sound from the non-hearing side to the better hearing side, helping make sounds from that side audible through the better-hearing ear.

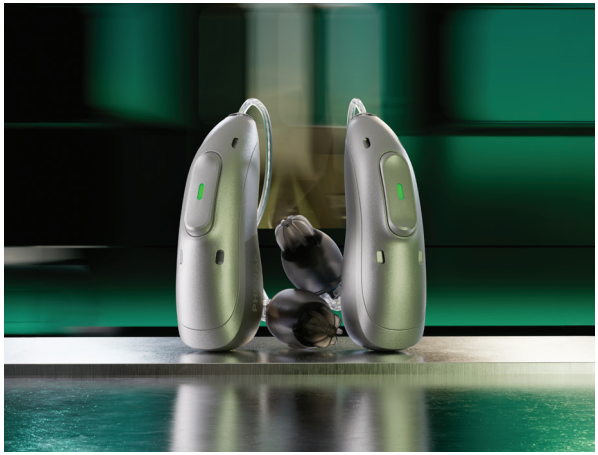

Clarity that speaks for itself

Phonak hearing aids are powered by AI and made for living, adapting seamlessly to your surroundings to keep you connected all day.

Phonak EON is hearing technology that works for you, so you can focus on life.

- Clarity that moves with you automatically.[1]
- Easier conversations start now. Enjoy being in the moment.
- Our most natural sound available.[2] Outdoors or indoors, EON automatically adjusts to different sound environments thanks to Phonak AI.

Upgrade your listening experience with Roger On Sphere™

Roger On Sphere brings the voices you want to hear closer, separates them from noise, and delivers them to your hearing aids. It connects directly to compatible Phonak hearing aids, so distance and noise don't come between you and the conversation. Enjoy Roger in one-to-one chats, group conversations, presentations and lectures, and when listening from a distance. You can also use Roger On Sphere when watching TV or participating in video calls.

With always-on Sphere technology, Roger On Sphere gives you the voices you care about, clearer than before.*

Discover how Roger On can empower your hearing journey at phonak.com/Roger.

* Compared to Roger On 3 based on a +3 dB SNR benefit in typical operational range of Roger devices.
